

B U Y

HOLLY CENTER

Annual Día de los Muertos Exhibition

Celebración

October 6 – November 12, 2017

Call for Entries

Details

The Buddy Holly Center invites artists to submit work for Celebración, our annual Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) exhibition.

Artists must RSVP by August 18, 2017, as space is limited. Work should be informed by traditional Día de los Muertos imagery and will be evaluated for their appropriateness and subsequent inclusion.

Works may be 2D or 3D, but may not exceed 40 inches in any direction, without advance approval.

Artwork must be ready for installation (hanging wire required on the back of all 2D works exceeding 12 inches in any direction).

September 18-22, 2017 | Delivery of Artwork

The BHC will only provide return shipping for out of town artists.

October 6 - November 12, 2017

Exhibition is open for viewing.

November 3, 2017 | Procesión

A progressive celebration between four sites in Lubbock, with performances and art at each venue.

November 13-17, 2017 | Pick-up of Artwork

Arrangements for return must be made by November 13. Works left over 90 days are considered abandoned and will be sold at City auction.

How to Submit

RSVP by August 18, 2017 via phone or email to:

Jacqueline Bober, Curator
806.775.3569

jbober@mylubbock.us

Artists are welcome to place a sale price on their work, but must fill out a City of Lubbock Vendor Application and IRS W9 form, as well as provide a Texas Sales and Use Tax Permit number. These documents are required of the BHC by the Texas Comptroller's Office. The BHC is happy to provide the City's Vendor Application and IRS W9 by email or in person when delivering artwork.

The BHC retains a 30% commission on all artwork sold during the exhibition.